

ABOUT NSAA

The National School Attorneys Association (NSAA) is a grassroots, independent, and self-governed network of school attorneys from across the country. We bring together legal professionals who advocate for public schools, offering meaningful connection, collaboration, and support. Through regular webinars, discussions, and timely updates, NSAA keeps members informed and engaged with the ever-evolving legal landscape affecting public schools.

WHY JOIN NSAA?

- Powerful Network: Connect with a vibrant community of school attorneys from across the country who understand the unique challenges and opportunities in education law.
- Timely Knowledge-Sharing: Stay ahead of the curve with access to an active discussion forum, regular member huddles on emerging issues, and monthly webinars—all free with membership.
- Weekly Legal Updates: Receive a concise, attorney-focused newsletter with the latest news, case law, and developments impacting public schools.
- Exclusive CLE Discounts: Enjoy members-only pricing on NSAA's high-quality CLE conferences designed specifically for school attorneys.
- National Advocacy: NSAA is the leading voice on legal issues affecting public schools through amicus briefs, public comments, and national policy and legal discussions.
